

BWT ALPINE FORMULA ONE TEAM ANNOUNCES JET365 AS PRIVATE AVIATION PARTNER FOR 2025

[02 May 2025] – BWT Alpine Formula One Team and JET365 are pleased to announce a bespoke partnership for the 2025 Formula One season. The boutique charter provider has been named the Team’s Private Aviation Partner and will provide travel to select members of the team including race drivers and senior management during the busy European season.

Fast becoming a premium option in the luxury travel sector, JET365 provides personalised jet charter services and jet card programmes with a focus on efficiency, service and flexibility. Every chartered flight is tailored to individual needs and with a focus on excellence, innovation and performance, these attributes perfectly align with BWT Alpine Formula One Team and JET365. A particular focus for the partnership will be to guarantee the team streamlined travel to Grands Prix saving time and energy during the busy 2025 Formula One season.

JET365 “Jet Card Holders” and clients will be able to benefit from the exclusive partnership with the opportunity to be hosted by the team during race weekends. Guests will be able to enjoy the unforgettable experience with premium trackside hospitality and behind-the-scenes access at a range of Grands Prix throughout the season.

Oliver Oakes, Team Principal, BWT Alpine Formula One Team:

“It is a pleasure to partner with JET365 for the 2025 Formula One season. JET365’s commitment to precision and world-class performance represents BWT Alpine Formula One Team’s values both on and off-track as do both of our commitments to reducing global emissions and raising awareness of environmental issues. This collaboration will provide the team with the efficiency and flexibility to travel seamlessly from our factory to races throughout the season allowing us to fully focus on the Grand Prix weekend.”

Alessandro Figliano, CEO and Founder of JET365:

“In the aviation business, and in Formula One, the stakes are just as high. Just like in Formula One, we hold ourselves to the highest standards. A premium and meticulous service is paramount for us, and we’re truly grateful for the opportunity to share this platform and stage with BWT Alpine Formula One Team. We’re excited to grow together and make an even greater impact across both of our industries.”

About BWT Alpine Formula One Team:

BWT Alpine Formula One Team competes in the FIA Formula One World Championship with Grand Prix race winner Pierre Gasly and Formula 1 rookie Jack Doohan, under the leadership of Team Principal Oliver Oakes and Executive Advisor Flavio Briatore. The team, bought by the Benetton Family in 1986, was moved to Enstone, Oxfordshire, in 1992 where it is still based today. Renault bought the Italian-run team in 2000 and rebranded as Alpine F1. The team has a winning legacy, having won the Formula One World Championship seven times, including the Drivers' World Championship [1994, 1995, 2005 and 2006] with Michael Schumacher and Fernando Alonso, and the Constructors' World Championship [1995, 2005 and 2006]. The team's most recent triumph came at the 2021 Hungarian Grand Prix, the 50th victory overall. The team finished the 2024 season strongly with two podium finishes and ended the year sixth place overall in the Constructor's Championship. For more information, please head to www.alpinefl.com
